

Senior Heat Treatment Process Engineer Job Description

Location

Pune, Maharashtra

Industry

Automotive Manufacturing

Employment Type

Full Time

Experience

5–8 Years

Job Summary

We are looking for an experienced Heat Treatment Process Engineer to manage heat treatment operations, improve process capability, ensure compliance with automotive quality standards, and support supplier development activities.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and optimize heat treatment processes.
- Monitor carburizing, carbonitriding, hardening, tempering, and normalizing processes.
- Conduct metallurgical analysis and failure analysis.
- Perform supplier audits and process validation as per CQI-9.
- Support APQP, PPAP, PFMEA, and Control Plan activities.
- Investigate customer complaints using Root Cause Analysis and CAPA.
- Collaborate with Production, Quality, and R&D; teams for continuous improvement.

Required Skills

- Heat Treatment
- Metallurgy
- Carburizing
- Carbonitriding
- Hardening & Tempering
- Metallurgical Testing
- Failure Analysis
- Supplier Development
- Process Validation

Quality Standards & Tools

- CQI-9
- IATF 16949
- APQP
- PPAP
- PFMEA
- CAPA

- 5S
- Kaizen

Education

B.E./B.Tech in Metallurgical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Materials Engineering, or equivalent.

Preferred Qualifications

Experience in automotive forging, casting, heat treatment, or component manufacturing. Exposure to audits and quality systems is preferred.

Soft Skills

Analytical thinking, leadership, communication, teamwork, and problem-solving.